CIENCIA Y ARTE

As part of the VI Congress on Synesthesia, Science and Art (Almeria, 2012)

You are invited to participate in an open-table discussion/forum

“SENSE SYNESTHESIA OR THINK SYNESTHESIA?”

Higher-order cognitive aspects of synesthesia and related implications for research methods

Discussion issues

Synesthesia: sensory or conceptual?

How experience can shape synesthesia?

What do research methods promise?

With invited panellists

Edward M. Hubbard, PhD. Post-Doctoral Fellow Vanderbilt University Department of Psychology and Human Development Peabody College, Nashville, TN (USA)

Noam Sagiv, PhD. Department of Psychology, Brunel University, London (UK)

Danko Nikolic, PhD. Max Planck Institute for Brain Research, Frankfurt/Main (Germany)

Emilio Gómez Milán. Professor of the Department of Experimental Psychology, University of Granada (Spain).

Moderation

Anton V. Sidoroff-Dorso. Department of Linguodidactics, MOSPI of Moscow Pedagogical State University, and Cross-Departmental Chair of Fundamental Psychology, MPSU, Moscow (Russia).

Backstage support

Sean A Day, PhD. Department of English and Journalism; Dept. of Behavior and Soc. Sciences Trident Technical College Charleston, SC, (USA)

With this open-table we aim to provide various perspectives on the issue of cognitive aspects of synaesthesia from the leading experts; share factual information and clarify the recent research results as well as give awareness of the theories and principles.

Venue: Congress Hall of UAL

Date: 16th February, the first day of the Congress.

Time: 17:15 – 18:15

There will be enough forum time for questions and remarks from the audience. Your questions are also welcome beforehand till February 13 via email.
